Chasing a Dream

A story about following your dreams | Ages 4-8

The Peacock Who Danced in Sydney

Pete dreams of dancing in Sydney. Leaving the Outback for bright lights and the Opera House, he follows his rhythm through a joyful rhyming adventure - and discovers there is no place like home.

Let's Talk About It

1 What is Pete's big dream? What is yours?

2 Pete left home to chase his dream. How do you think that felt?

3 What did Pete find out about home at the end of the story?

4 What is one small thing you could practise today to get closer to your dream?

For the grown-up

Dreams are enormous and 'one day' is hard for a small child to hold. Asking for one small step today turns a wish into something they can actually do. Pete's ending also quietly gives permission for a dream to change once you get there.

Your Turn!

The Peacock Who Danced in Sydney | Ages 4-8

Draw yourself doing the thing you dream of doing

Word Bank

dream | dance | brave | practise | home | rhythm | try

Write about it